

Earl Hazell, Basso-Cantante
Program/Promotional Bio
earl@jazzoperetry.com

Earl Hazell, Basso Cantante

(75 words)

Earl Hazell, Basso Cantante, native New Yorker and Executive Director of Jazzoperetry, Inc. is a performing and creative artist developing a multi-faceted career through the embrace of opera, literature and modern jazz on the world stage. Hazell has performed with the New York Philharmonic numerous times, including in the Britten War Requiem under Kurt Masur, and in productions of the Gershwins' Porgy and Bess in San Francisco, Continental Europe, the UK, Australia and New Zealand.